

Zero Balancing II

With Lisa J. Berger, ZB Faculty

February 25-28, 2010 • Shutesbury, MA

ZERO BALANCING II is the second part of the two-course Core ZB Program which prepares students to practice Zero Balancing using the full Core Zero Balancing Protocol. ZB II is also a prerequisite for advanced ZB courses and a requirement for Certification in Zero Balancing.

ZB II serves both beginning and advanced practitioners. In addition to covering the full Core ZB Protocol, this course includes special lessons on framing, peer feedback, expanded states of consciousness and body alignment.

All participants, whether new to ZB or returning to refresh and update their skills, will learn new fulcrums, reconnect with key principles, receive touch feedback and deepen their understanding of essential aspects of ZB practice. 25 CEU hours NCCAOM and NCBTMB.

Studying Zero
Balancing is a blessing.
By immersing ourselves
in the principles
and practices of ZB, we create new possibilities for clarity
and harmony within ourselves and others.

Healing occurs as the body-mind experiences
states of oneness
throughout Zero
Balancing sessions.
